Origin and Destination Facility Web Based Interactive Safety and Vehicle Handling Training

TTCI DAMAGE PREVENTION AND LOADING SERVICES

© 2017 TTCI/AAR – 1

Benefits

- Industry Standardized Training
- Module Designed (Train Associates on Areas of Responsibility)
- Explaining Why Set Industry Procedures are Critical.
- Training is kept up to date with Industry Requirements with no lag time when requirements change
- Greatly reduces costs for railroads, contractors and OEM’s to develop, implement and track employee training.

© 2017 TTCI/AAR – 2

Curriculum Covered

- Proper Placement of Multi-Levels.
- End Doors, Decks and Bridge Plate Procedures.
- Origin and Destination Vehicle Baying Procedures.
- Damage Free Vehicle Loading and Unloading Procedures.
- Proper Vehicle Securement.
- Facility Procedures.

Planned Future Curriculum

- Multi-Level Pre-trip Inspections and Requirements.
- Pre-trip Tooling and Required Certifications
- Bridge Plate Maintenance.
- Loading and Unloading Ramp Inspections.
- Proper Vehicle Post loading Vehicle Inspections.

© 2017 TTCI/AAR – 4

Training Cost Breakdowns

Current One Day AAR Training $3,200.00

Proposed Web Based Training $500.00 Per Year Unlimited Number of Students/Views Per Facility.

Small Facilities $30.00 Per Student

© 2017 TTCI/AAR – 5